TRADE VOTES FOR HIGHWAYS?

Last week a certain Grayling man came into our office and stated that a group of "Brucker for Governor" boosters at West Branch asked him over the phone how Brucker stood in Grayling. Further they requested him to call upon some of our well known citizens and find out how they stood on Mr. Brucker, and to ask that if it would get any votes for Mr. Brucker, if a promise were given to complete the paving of M-76 between that city and M-55. It didn't take us long to tell what we thought of the project. We replied that very likely we would vote for Mr. Brucker for governor but to tell his West Branch committee for us that we didn't have any votes to trade for highways nor for any other proposals that may be offered. We have only scorn for any such implications, and we believe that an honest American would be equally resentful.

BOOKLET TELLS OF "PLACES TO GO"

The attractions of AuSable River, Houghton Lake and Higgins Lake as a mecca for motor tourists are outlined in a booklet entitled "Places to Go" which the Standard Oil Company is distributing nowadays in hundreds of thousands from its service stations.

The booklet, written by John E. Roberts, compresses into forty-five narrow pages the high spots of interest about 524 of the outstanding points worth visiting in Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Concerning AuSable river it notes: "U.S. 27-23. This historically and scenically famous river flows from Grayling to Oscoda into Lake Huron. It cuts a path of scenic splendor through 250 miles of primeval forest. The Hanson Military reservation, a 16,000-acre state park, is located on beautiful Lake Margrethe, near Grayling, in the heart of Michigan's wildest forest land."

Concerning Houghton Lake it notes: "On U.S. 27. Six hundred feet above Lake Michigan—twelve hundred feet above sea level. Largest of Michigan's 5,000 inland lakes. Noted for fishing and duck hunting. Fine camping facilities, summer cottages and hotels. Houghton Lake State Forest lies to the south."

Concerning Higgins Lake it notes: "U.S. 27. Here you will find the remnants of the old walled town of Yemskodesh, built by the Indians who dominated this section before Columbus discovered America. The Canadian, the outlaw camp of the American Legion, also here. Beautiful Higgins Lake State Park is adjacent."

Forty-one other places in Michigan are listed.

The foreword to the section devoted to Michigan says, "MICHIGAN is the land of fruit and flowers; the land of winding waterways; of miles and miles of shaded shore line; of silver sand dunes; of lovely lakes and deep, dense forests. Broad concrete highways run entirely around the peninsula, and criss-cross the state in a marvelous road system that makes thousands of fascinating 'Places to Go' accessible to anybody who runs a car."

The booklet does not attempt to include all the attractive points in the territory covered, but merely indicates the wide choice the motor car owner has, wherever he may be, of places of interest to visit. Populous cities are not featured, since it is one of the purposes of the booklet to start the motorist on the open road to places where he can gain relaxation and refreshment in nature's playground.

The booklets are being distributed free as part of the company's great spring and summer advertising campaign. This campaign will utilize much space in successive advertisements in 1,621 newspapers to inspire people to get into their cars, forget their troubles, and "go places." As to where to go the advertisements will refer to the booklet.

Standard Oil's purpose in the advertising campaign is reported to be not only to stimulate the demand for its gasoline and oil, but also to do something constructive toward improving the state of the public mind. With some experience in analyzing mass psychology, the company's advertising experts have decided that it will be worth many dollars to get people out of their offices and homes this summer on road-trips that will set them thinking about something more refreshing than business conditions. Hotels, merchants, and others in the places recommended to the touring public have prospect of gaining from the advertising in quite as material a way as the company itself can.

JAMES MILNE PASSED AWAY

James Milne, age 66 years, owner of several cottages at Lake Margrethe, passed away at the home of his sister-in-law Mrs. William Neal Sunday night at 10:00 o'clock after a three months illness. The cause of death was cancer.

Mr. and Mrs. Milne had been coming to Grayling to spend their summers for several years, having first purchased the cottage in which they have made their home from John Garrison of Columbus, O. Mr. Milne also bought quite a lot of land in the vicinity of his own cottage and developed it, building several cottages that have given pleasure to many people during the resort season.

The remains were taken to Saginaw for burial and the funeral held Tuesday afternoon. Accompanying Mrs. Milne to Saginaw were Mr. and Mrs. William Neal, Pat McKay and Miss Clarice Welch.

Mr. Milne was known to many in Grayling who will extend sympathy to Mrs. Milne in her sad bereavement.

GRAYLING INDEPENDENTS WIN FROM FREDERIC

Grayling Indies won their opening baseball game from Frederic Sunday afternoon by the score of 16-10. There was plenty of hitting done by both sides. Rudy Harrison, Grayling's 1st baseman, slammed out a home run, double and a single. Pond, centerfield for the locals collected a triple, double, and two singles. Sheehy also collected a triple, double, and two singles. Neal, the local's shortstop, had two triples and a double to his credit.

Horner of Frederic and K. Welch were the big guns for their team. Welch slammed out a homer and a double while Horner collected two doubles and two singles.

Grayling plays Lovells at Lovells next Sunday.

THEN—AND NOW

Three years ago, only one man of the Globe-News organization could be out of town at a time and he had to leave at the last minute and get back as soon as possible. Many times I have driven 100 miles to a banquet, sat through three hours of bunk in order to make a 5-minute speech, then drive the 100 miles back so as to be ready for work the next morning.

Nowadays, as many News-Globe employees as are invited make those trips and we stay as long as we want to. The whole outfit could leave the office now and it wouldn't make any difference.

I like the depression. I have time to visit my friends, to make new ones. Two years ago when I went to a neighboring town, I always stayed at a hotel. Now I go home with my friends, stay all night and enjoy homecooking. I have even spent the week-end with some of the boys who have been kind enough to invite me.

Land of Romance
Historic chateaux, chateaux d'oeuvre of the Renaissance period, stand as vivid memories of France's history in the Touraine province which is known as the garden of France. Prehistoric caves marked with the first human attempts in pictorial art are well worth visiting in the northern regions.

Mr. Holger Hanson and Mrs. Louis Jensen left Monday for an extended visit in Ypallanti.

Just about perfect in their appointments are the luncheon that the girls of the Home Economics class have given this week. One group of mothers was entertained Tuesday and today another group is to be entertained. At the Tuesday luncheon yellow flowers graced the table and places were found by pretty place cards of the same color. The young ladies of the class prepared and served the delicious three-course luncheon. This is part of the final examination that comes at this time of the year.

George Smith and another party from West Branch were injured in an auto accident last Sunday while returning home after spending the afternoon at the home of his sister Mrs. Frank Tetu in Grayling. The accident occurred three miles this side of West Branch and the car which was being driven by the man with Smith, turned turtle on one of the hills at that point. Smith received a dislocated shoulder and injuries to his left leg while his partner suffered internal injuries. Both are patients at the Tolfree Memorial Hospital in West Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Webb returned to their home in Mt. Pleasant Tuesday for the summer months. Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Clippert and little daughter Billyann accompanied them and spent the day.

There will be no services in the Danish Lutheran church next Sunday due to the absence of its pastor Rev. Hans Juhl, who will occupy the pulpit of the Danish church at Marlette. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Juhl and daughter Miss Dagmar.

County Clerk Axel Peterson announces the receipt of Crawford county's share of the State Township Road Relief fund. The amount received was $15,822.94, which will be used in the relief of the township roads taken over by the county.

Mrs. T. P. Peterson and daughter Virginia spent the week end in Vassar visiting Mrs. Peterson's mother Mrs. C. M. Ross. They were accompanied as far as Bay City by Mrs. Carl Sorenson and daughter Evelyn who visited at the home of Mrs. William Finley.

Mrs. C. R. Keyport left Tuesday morning for Detroit, where she will be joined by her sister Mrs. Kenneth Dobbyn and they will go to Nashville, Tenn., to accompany Miss Jane home. Miss Jane has just completed her first year at the Ward-Belmont school for girls at Nashville.

Many of the local business places or store fronts are being treated to fresh coats of paint. Among them are the Alexander building, which is being nicely repainted; the Cash & Carry Store; 5c to $1.00 Store, and A. & P. Store. This all helps to improve the looks of the business section.

To honor Mrs. Jake Hanselman on her 80th birthday several friends and neighbors called on her Friday afternoon. About 16 ladies were present and the afternoon was spent in visiting after which a pot luck lunch was enjoyed. Mrs. Hanselman received some lovely gifts and best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

John Brady, Henry Jordan, Richard Lovely, William Herle, Frank Malloy, B. J. Callahan, and Floyd Laskus attended a meeting of the Knights of Columbus at Traverse City Sunday. There were 21 candidates initiated into the order, among whom was Floyd Laskus of Grayling. The initiation was followed by a banquet.

Jerome Kessler is the new clerk at Grayling postoffice. A competitive examination for postal clerk was held recently and the three having the highest standings were Jerome, Arthur May and a young man from Saginaw. According to the postoffice department regulations the postmaster must select one from the three having the highest standings. Jerome was the lucky fellow.

The Juniors of the Gaylord High School gave their annual Junior Prom Friday evening of last week at the pavilion at the Gaylord fair grounds. A nice crowd attended and the music was furnished by Mohn's dance band of Flint. Those in attendance from Grayling were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Joseph, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Keyport, Mr. and Mrs. Lorane Sparkes, Carl Johnson, Miss Louise Connine and the Misses Ellen Githou and Betty Welsh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Martin and son Edward were called to Grand Rapids Wednesday of last week by the serious illness of Mrs. Martin's mother. Mrs. Sarah Dunlop. Mrs. Dunlop passed away Thursday afternoon and the remains were taken to Charlevoix Monday for interment. Miss Mary Dunlop accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Martin home and will remain here indefinitely. Edward Caldwell of Knowlton, Canada was a guest at the Martin home a few days the first of the week.

THE ARKON'S FLIGHT WEST

During her recent flight to the West Coast, the U.S.S. Arkon was subjected to weather conditions which were described by her commander as "The most severe ever experienced by any rigid airship."

Over Texas, in the vicinity of El Paso, severe thunderstorms and fog were encountered, and the flight through the Rockies was made "blind." In this vicinity she also encountered two severe sand storms, which tossed the giant airship up and down like a chip, but through it all, Commander Rosendahl said in a report to the Navy Department, the Arkon behaved beautifully. This flight and weather test would seem to prove conclusively the airworthiness of the Navy's latest.

ONLY ONE ROD AND LINE ALLOWED

While a hook and line fisherman is permitted to use but a single rod and line at one time the number of hooks attached is not limited to one, according to the Department of Conservation in answer to numerous inquiries. The law specifies "hook or hooks" attached to one line and does not limit the number of hooks.

A single line or rod and line with single hook or hooks attached may be used for casting and trolling, for fish which shall be by fish taking the bait or hook in the mouth.

LOG OFFICE SAYS:

Keeping Up With Michigan.
The Dixie highway from Toledo through Detroit and to Saginaw follows very closely the path of an old Indian trail.

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has just begun a comprehensive advertising campaign urging both residents and non-residents to vacation in Michigan. The first advertisement in the campaign urges Michiganders to urge out-of-state relatives and friends to vacation in Michigan.

One of the paragraphs in this same ad is pertinent: "The millions of dollars spent each year by Michigan's thousands of visitors add to the prosperity of the state. Let us also spend our own vacations in Michigan this year, thereby contributing still further to its prosperity."

Activity.
Inquiries are pouring in by the hundreds—the new Tourist Guide and Directory is being printed—shipments of mail from the Log Office each day total many pounds—advertising is being placed—publicity is being written—plans are being made—the program for dedication of the Lumberman's Memorial on the AuSable river at the end of the Thompson Trail is being worked out—encouraging letters predicting a good season are being received—requests for stories strike an average of about one a day—communities are giving evidence of wholehearted cooperation.

This season has every prospect of being a profitable one for the tourist and resort interests of Michigan, but those who enter to the tourist and resort business should remember that the present need is advertising. Advertising costs money, so obviously the present need is money. Members can help materially by forwarding at least a portion of their membership dues.

A Tribute.
Earl Stannard, West Branch druggist, should receive a great big vote of thanks from the people of West Branch and vicinity.
Mr. Stannard is the man responsible for Ogema County's scenic routes. Last year he spent days logging the trails. With the cooperation of W. A. Crandall of the Ogema County Herald, he published a pamphlet giving mileages and points of interest.
This year he is directing the Chamber of Commerce's activity on the scenic routes.

"TOO FAR? NO! Only 146,000 miles to date"

"I guess I've gone too far now not to know what is good for my motor," Hugh Orchard of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, tells R. J. Casey. "My first Willys-Knight went 85,000 miles. This one has gone 61,000 to date."

An Interview by ROBERT J. CASEY Chicago Daily News Reporter

HUGH ORCHARD, Chamber of Commerce Convention Manager at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has driven two Willys-Knight cars a total of 146,000 miles. In front of the War Memorial on a day that was none too warm he pushed the starter to show that the motor was not congealed and directed the reporter to look at his speedometer.

"This is my second Willys-Knight car," he said. "I started to use Iso-Vis in my first car because it seemed to me that an oil that wouldn't thin out was just what a sleeve valve motor needed. I kept on using it because it did just what I expected of it. My oil consumption is lower and the engine runs more smoothly."

Mr. Orchard's 146,000 trouble-free miles prove again what Iso-Vis has demonstrated in laboratory tests and in A.A.A. tests on the Indianapolis Speedway—Positive Lubrication Protection. Iso-Vis (a Standard Oil product) will not thin out from dilution. See the Ball and Bottle Test at Standard Oil service stations and dealers.

DEPT. OF STATE STATE NEWS BULLETIN

The department of state's investigation into alleged evasion of payment of gasoline taxes, is to extend to all parts of the state, it was announced recently by George L. Clark, director of the gas tax division.

As a result of recent activities, two men are serving jail sentences in the Ingham county jail, and five warrants have been issued in Saginaw. In cases where department investigators find evidence of possible evasion of the tax payment or where gasoline is sold without proper license, the department holds hearings before asking for warrants.

Hearings are to be continued in Detroit during the coming week and it is likely that hearings will be necessary in Grand Rapids and several other cities.

Gasoline used by trucks in road-building and road-repairing is subject to the gasoline tax unless the truck operates entirely upon private property, an opinion from the attorney general to the Department of State, held recently.

The opinion declared that roads closed for repair, still remain public highways and vehicles operating upon them are subject to the gasoline tax. This same rule applies to new road construction. The department plans to operate in conformity with the opinion, and requests for refunds based on these premises, will be denied.

The corporation division of the department of state, has started an investigation into the number of Michigan companies that are operating under receiverships. A recent ruling of the United States supreme court says that such companies must pay the annual corporation tax.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES
OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, June 3, 1909

A needed rain came Tuesday. August Amos is busy building at the lake.

Hal Davis has gone to New York on business.

Mrs. Alexander and son Fred have been in Detroit for a few days.

L. Fournier has been on a business trip to Detroit and vicinity for the past week.

Mrs. Lizzie Foley was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Colten, the first of the week.

Miss Marion Callaghan, superintendent of Boyne Falls schools, is visiting her sister in Grayling.

"Step-Mother" and "Wonderful Eggs" is the title of the beautiful hand painted colored film at the Temple Theatre tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers and family were in Grayling a few days last week, returning to their home Monday.

Judge Batterson looks a little peaked yet from his illness, but was able to come down Monday and take his place in the ranks with the "old boys."

Last Saturday was a busy day in our town, every township in the county was well represented and our "Counter Jumpers" were kept on the hop all day.

S. B. Brott is the champion raiser of Spelts in this county. He had over 300 bushels last year and will double it this. If more of our farmers would sow it, they would not make a mistake.

Walter Love writes from Knapah, Washington, that he struck his job with Arthur Brink, an engineer in the mines, as soon as he reached there and is greatly pleased with the outlook, only waiting for his family who will go in a few days.

The total number of pupils for whom primary school money was apportioned in May for this county was 1,133, giving us $5,033.00 as follows: Beaver Creek, $659.00; Frederic, $1,110; Grayling, $2,945.00; Maple Forest, $310.00; and South Branch, $170.00.

By a new law, free lunches are barred from saloons. Nothing eatable can be served except crackers and pretzels; salt herring are on the prohibition list. The new law goes into effect Sept. 1st.

Wm. Mortenson left for the West yesterday to recover his health. He will stop off a few days at Saginaw where his parents will join him. His many friends regret his going, but hope for his return with good health.

The trout fishing season was put back to the old date of May 1st to Sept. 1st. The black bass closed season was made from Feb. 1st to June 16th, limiting the number to be caught at 10, and the smallest fish to be caught at 10 inches.

We note the following business changes in the village this week. Silas Body has taken possession of the South Side grocery, which he bought from W. Love. He is putting in a first class stock and we predict success for his enterprise. Simon Sivars succeeds N. P. Mickelson as landlord in the Manistee House and J. LaBeed succeeds McMahon in the McKay House. We hear that Mickelsons will go to Nellville, the new town of Mickelson & Sons Lumber Co., while McMahon remains in Grayling.

Last Thursday afternoon Dr. Insley, Coroner, was telephoned from South Branch on account of the sudden death of John LaRogee, at his farm near the Pearsoll school house.

State Oil Inspector Neal called the public's attention to a few changes made by the present legislature in the so-called "Red Can" Gasoline act. The new law, which goes into effect September 1st next, provides that cans, buckets, barrels, etc. which are to be painted a bright red, may be "lettered" with the word gasoline instead of being "stenciled" as heretofore.

The Presbyterian church was well filled last Sunday in the attendance for the memorial service, for veterans of the Civil War. The number of attending veterans was small, only fifteen being present, where but a few years ago there would have been five times that many.

School Notes
(23 Years Ago)

The school choir gave two selections in the Opera House Monday afternoon at the request of the G. A. R.

The Seniors are making an effort to secure Cora Vandewater for the vocal selections for the commencement.

Owing to a slight misunderstanding on the part of the markers on Chemistry and three of our Seniors there will be another examination soon.

Some gleanings from the recent examinations:

What is a land-tied island?
An island tied to the land so it can't get away.

How is the Indian and Pacific ocean connected?
A student looking on map replied, By Arrows.

What is a cauliflower?
A cabbage with a college education.

What is an abstract noun? An abstract noun is the name of something that has no existence. For example, Godness.

NEW BICENTENNIAL QUARTER DOLLAR COINED

The new George Washington quarter dollar, to be issued by the United States Treasury as a feature of the nation-wide George Washington Bicentennial Celebration will be coined in large enough quantities to satisfy a normal demand, officials of the Treasury have informed the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission. It is expected that the quarter will be ready for distribution before June 1.

The design of the new coin was approved by Secretary of the Treasury Ogden L. Mills from more than a hundred models, many of them submitted by leading American artists. It was executed by John Flanagan, New York sculptor and designer of the Department of Agriculture World War Memorial.

The obverse of the new coin bears the portrait of George Washington in profile. Over the head appears the word "Liberty," and below it is stamped the date "1832." To one side is the motto "In God We Trust."

The principal design of the other side is a spread eagle with the inscription "United States of America" and "E Pluribus Unum" above, and "Quarter Dollar" below. An olive branch also appears below the eagle to complete a stately, dignified design. The new coin is exactly the same size, weight and fineness as the present quarter dollar.

The George Washington quarter is the first coin of regular issue ever to bear the image of the First President. It was authorized by special act of Congress making it possible for the Treasury to share in the Bicentennial Celebration.

As a coin of regular issue the George Washington quarter will replace the twenty-five cent piece now in circulation. No other quarter dollar will be coined for the next twenty-five years unless authorized by special act of Congress.

Minted at San Francisco, Denver and Philadelphia the coins will be placed in circulation through the regular channels of the Federal Reserve Banks, and will appear simultaneously in all parts of the country.

Many Kinds of Beetle

More than 150,000 different species of beetle have been studied and described by scientists, making up the largest group of insects in the world. Twelve thousand of these are natives of Central and North America. The name means "biter," all the species having mouths strong enough to invoke considerable damage to their prey. SPRING TONIC

Eggs are better than any spring tonic, says the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture. They are rich in iron for the formation of good red blood, vitamins that promote growth and assist in bone formation, and protein for body building and repair. One specialist in child nutrition says that one egg yolk a day in the young child's diet is a means of preventing rickets, and most authorities agree that every child over two years old should have a whole egg every day if possible.

Reduced 30 Pounds Never Felt Better

Safe Way To Lose Fat

Take the case of Miss Madeline Crowley, for instance, who lives in Little Rock, Ark. Just read her letter:

"I have used Kruschen Salts for one year—when I started I weighed 140 pounds—now I weigh 110 pounds and never felt better in my life."

That's the big reason a host of men and women take Kruschen to lose weight—as the fat goes "you gain in health—skin clears—eyes grow bright—activity replaces indolence."

Take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—out down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—a jar of Kruschen that costs but a trifle lasts 4 weeks—get it at any drug store in the world—but for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts.

SECRET OF BRIAND'S LOVE IS REVEALED

Premier Lived a Bachelor After Romance Failed.

Paris.—The secret of why Aristide Briand, eleven times premier of France, a lover of children, remained a confirmed bachelor until his death a few days ago has been solved by the story of an unhappy love affair now being told for the first time.

The attitude of the great orator and statesman toward marriage dates to the early days when he was a struggling law student.

In his native Nantes was a Breton maiden who received the homage of all the young men of the best families, but this girl, Jeanne Kermadec, by name, was ambitious and had declared that she would only listen to the wooing of a man with a brilliant future.

She refused Briand. She refused to entertain the impetuous Briand of humble origin, and cast in her lot with a young man of his own age, one of his friends, a member of a well-known family and a brilliant star of local debating societies for whom a great future was predicted.

Twenty years later the man of brilliance had emerged from prison after serving a sentence for fraud, and he and his ambitious wife were reduced to the direst straits, living in a miserable attic in the most squalid section of Paris.

At the time Aristide Briand, who had up to then devoted himself to the law and journalism, was just coming into his own as a politician, and his dazzling eloquence earned for him the admiration of women of wealth and position who would gladly have linked their fortunes with the coming man, but Briand remained faithful to his first love, and cherished the hope that one day they would be reunited.

When he became premier, though by no means rich, M. Briand arranged to give his former friend a new start for the sake of the woman they had both loved, but his efforts were unavailing, and after a brief career as an official in the colonial office in France and Africa, the man fell again, dragging his wife down with him. Both disappeared and when they were traced again the man was at the point of death and the woman was a wreck of her former self.

Again Offers Marriage. When the husband had been in the grave a year Briand offered marriage (perhaps because) she had realized the mistake she had made in rejecting him in the first instance, she stoutly refused his offer, saying that she had no right to burden him with a woman with a past who was an ugly shadow of her former self and was representative of naught but a wasted life.

In any case, she said, her own death could not be far off, and in fact she died about two years afterwards.

She was buried in an unmarked grave in the little cemetery of Cocherel, where the remains of Briand now rest.

Each year, on the anniversary of the woman's death, M. Briand made a point of journeying to Cocherel to lay flowers on the unknown grave, and even the most important political engagements could induce him to omit this tribute to the dead woman he had loved with such obstinacy for nearly a half century.

Now, through death, they are at rest, not far from each other.

New Hampshire Women Win Many Town Offices

Concord, N. H.—Women have captured many of the more important town offices in several New Hampshire communities as result of the recent town meetings.

At Middleton Mrs. Ruth Kelley was elected town clerk; Mrs. Margaret Kimball, town treasurer, and Gladys Whitehouse, town auditor.

Beattie Hayes was elected town treasurer of New Durham; Mrs. Ethel W. Morell, town clerk of Alton; Stella F. Ayer, town treasurer of Alton; Tressa Nelson, town clerk of Stratford; Liana E. Locke, town clerk of Barrington, and Mrs. Fannie Whitehouse, town clerk of Farrington.

President's 500 Trout Put Into Wrong River

Nashua, N. H.—If fisherman Herbert Hoover wants to catch the trout raised for him at the local government hatchery he'll have to transfer his angling operations from the Rapidan to the Rose river. The 500 eight-inch brook trout shipped to the President's camp were put off the train at Orange, Va., by mistake, according to word received here, and dumped into the Rose river by some mountaineers who were expecting a similar consignment.

Once Humble Razorfish Now Sought as Delicacy

Hyannis, Mass.—The razorfish, humble member of the clam clan, is enjoying a sudden and inexplicable spurt of popularity on Cape Cod. Once sneered at by fish fanciers as unfit for the American diet, the razorfish has been found to be quite palatable and is being rated as a delicacy.

A Nourishing Diet

READING AND CHARACTER

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Emeritus Deap of Men,
University of Illinois.

He was twelve, perhaps, sitting all humped up upon the floor in one corner of the office building reading the evening news, his bag of undelivered papers on the floor beside him.

"What are you reading?" I asked, knowing that nothing ordinary would keep him so engrossed.

"Hickman," was the only word he uttered.

"Do you find it interesting?" I inquired.

"I say so," he answered, and kept on with the reading.

I knew very well what was holding his childish attention. His young mind was concerning itself with the sordid details of the trial of "the Fox," which was at that time holding the front page of practically every newspaper in the country. It was a crime so brutal, so horrible, so revolting that I could not bring myself to the point of reading about it. My child interest was that the unhappy perpetrator should be put away as soon as possible, and as justice should decide, and that we should be permitted to forget the horror of it all.

And the boy was only twelve; whose mind was so engrossed with the lurid picture of the crime, that he could not go on with his evening task. It was to me pitiful.

What is the effect upon childish immature minds of the stories of youthful crime? It cannot be good. The impressions and the influences which come to a child between the ages of twelve and eighteen are the most lasting impressions.

The details of crime are what the people want, the news editor says, and if the paper is to succeed, that is what they must be given. I wonder, however, if it is necessary to broadcast the horrors of crime always upon the front page, to center the attention upon them by the use of heavy-faced streamers, and photographic representations of the most revolting scenes connected with these crimes. When Mrs. Snyder was electrocuted, the details of her execution were so minute as almost to take one into her presence to see her agony, and to hear her moans. Such reading is—had enough for adults whose experience has hardened, but for children!

Homemakers' Corner

With spring time, comes the need for cleaning and storing the woolen blankets. The wise housewife cares for her blankets so they do not have to be washed every year. A strip of light weight attractive cloth about 1 inch wide over one end of the blankets will serve to protect them from soiling. Frequent airings and washings with a soft brush will keep the blanket in a good condition.

However, washing is a necessity sooner or later. First, advises Miss Jona Stautz, immerse the blanket in clear lukewarm soft water at a temperature between 110 degrees to 115 degrees F., then transfer to a suds which has been prepared beforehand from neutral soap well dissolved. The suds are made from a 1 per cent soap solution, that is one pound of high grade neutral cake soap or slightly less if powdered, to 12 gallons of rain water. The temperature should be between 110 and 115 degrees F. Agitate the blanket gently with the hands in the suds for 15 to 20 minutes, then transfer to a second lukewarm soft water rinse, with temperature about 6 to 10 degrees less than the first one.

When lifting the blanket from one bath to the next, care must be taken not to allow it to become stretched from the weight of the water. A wringer may be used to extract the water from the last two rinsings, providing the rollers have been loosened to prevent creases and flattening of the nap. Before spreading over the line to dry, it would be safer to let it drain and partially dry in the fold of a sheet, securely pinned on the line. This prevents stretching and uneven drying.

Two Meals Day Best For Stomach Trouble

Skip one meal and drink water instead. Wash out stomach and bowels each morning by drinking water with spoonful of simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, saline compound (called Adierika).

Adierika brings out poisons you never thought were in your system. If you are nervous, can't sleep, full of gas, it will surprise you. Adierika contains no harmful drugs. Get it today; by tomorrow you feel the wonderful effect of this German doctor's remedy. Mac & Gidley, druggists.

BAYER ASPIRIN

beware of imitations

Unless you see the name Bayer and the word genuine on the package as pictured above you can never be sure that you are taking the genuine Bayer Aspirin that thousands of physicians prescribe in their daily practice.

The name Bayer means genuine Aspirin. It is your guarantee of purity—your protection against the imitations. Millions of users have proved that it is safe.

Genuine Bayer Aspirin promptly relieves:

Headaches	Neuralgia
Rheumatism	Lumbago
Neuritis	Toothache

No harmful after-effects follow its use. It does not depress the heart.

Vice President Gets His Buddy Poppy

Little Betty Joan Christian, daughter of a deceased war veteran, sells a buddy poppy to Vice President Curtis. In the national annual sale for the benefit of veterans of foreign wars, as well as for the widows and orphans of war veterans, Betty lives with her brother and sister at the V. F. W. National Home for widows and orphans of ex-service men in Fulton Rapids, Mich. The buddy poppies are made by disabled and needy ex-service men.

ORIGIN OF THE WORD "CADET"

According to the Navy Recruiting Station, Detroit, the word "cadet" arose in the feudal organization of family life. The head of the family was the "caput," a pure Latin word meaning head, or captain. The junior members were grouped under the same name, but with the French diminutive, "ette" added. So the juniors became "capettes." This term, in time, became smoothed into a better sounding word—cadet. The term eventually became limited to the junior members of a military organization. When the "capettes" came under the Scottish influence, it was modified into "caddie."

How Old?

He doesn't look a day over fifty. And feels like forty.

At the age of 62.

That's the happy state of health and pep a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-alive—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active salts, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of headache, biliousness, constipation.

But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better. You will never need another laxative.

Give the children a dose of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a sound stomach, active liver and strong bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every way.

MUSHROOMS

Do not depend on so-called tests for distinguishing between poisonous and edible mushrooms, warns the United States Department of Agriculture. It is not true that only poisonous mushrooms will turn a silver coin placed in the utensil in which they are cooked, or that they will become edible if soaked or boiled in salt water. Neither are mushrooms that peel readily always edible. Insects on mushrooms are no guide to their edibility—insects infest both poisonous and edible mushrooms. It is not safe, says the department, to eat young, unopened "buttons," as it is difficult to distinguish between poisonous and edible mushrooms in the early stages.

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. You know, it is made especially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable preparation—contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and peaceful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

The clinics will be from 10:00 o'clock a. m. to 4:00 o'clock p. m. each day. The doctor will examine the children and give advice and you may have your child immunized against diphtheria and smallpox if desired. This is a good opportunity for mothers to have your pre-school child looked over and the service is free.

A forest fire was started in a peculiar manner Monday afternoon when a new Ford truck, driven by Homer Cousino of Cheboygan and loaded with new furniture caught fire in an unknown manner. Before the fire was discovered parts of the burning furniture had fallen off by the roadsides for about a mile stretch and started the grass on fire. As it was so dry the fire spread rapidly and it was necessary to get out a crew of men to suppress the flames. The truck and its contents were completely destroyed and a piece of the asphalt road was melted by the flames. It happened at the sand hill on U.S. 27 between Grayling and Frederic.

Playing Tarzan the Ape Man seems to be a dangerous game, as there has been several boys bruised up within the last week trying to be like Tarzan. The most serious is John Henry Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holger F. Peterson, who while playing Tuesday evening fell from a tree in the Reynolds yard. In falling he struck on the cement walk below and was in an unconscious condition when picked up. He was rushed to Mercy Hospital where it was found he had suffered a broken left arm and received injuries to his face and leg. He is getting along nicely which will be glad news to his playmates. Another Tarzan is Tommy Ingalls, son of Mrs. Clarence Ingalls, who had the misfortune to fall and break his left arm Friday morning. Like Tarzan he tried to jump from a telephone pole to a tree but the limb wouldn't hold him and it let him down to the ground. Junior McNamara, too, is playing the same game fell from a porch and skinned his forehead. Dr. Kayport says these youngsters should grow tall like apes and they could play the game with safety so then they would have something better to hold on with.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dowe enjoyed having as their guests a few days this week the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kral of Benton Harbor. The Doves have moved from the Hanson apartments to the Pond house on Cedar street.

Reservations have been made at Shoppengons Inn for state officers of the Ladies National League and the League of Veterans and Sons for attendance at the annual state convention of these organizations to be held in Grayling on Sept. 14, 15 and 16.

Mrs. William Weiss and son Harry returned Tuesday from Monroe where they were called Saturday by the death of a nephew age 10 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weiss. The little boy died suddenly of heart failure, resulting from an attack of the flu.

Russell Cripps of Lansing visited friends here Friday having driven up with a friend Homer M. Gable. Russell just got off crutches as the result of injuries received in an auto accident in January. He suffered severe injuries to his limbs and a bad cut across the nose.

Misses Rosalin Lewis and Josephine Nichols entertained several friends at bridge at the home of Mrs. Holger Hanson Tuesday evening. Four tables were enjoyed for which Mrs. Ernest Olson held the high score. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses.

Misses Margaret and Olga Nelson entertained a group of friends at their cottage Mar-01-To at Lake Margrethe last Wednesday evening. Misses Ruth McNeven, Rosalin Lewis and Ingeborg Hanson won prizes in contests that were enjoyed. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed.

Mr. LaVere Cushman and little son Robert left Friday for Lapeer where they will visit Mrs. Cushman's sister until school closes. Mr. Cushman will join them at that time and they will go to Britton where they will reside, he having accepted a position as superintendent of schools at that place for next year.

Police Commissioner Ben Landsberg and Mrs. Landsberg of Inkster visited friends here Sunday. Besides holding the police commissioner's job, which he accepted at $1.00 per year Ben is also township treasurer of Inkster. The Landsbergs were accompanied by Miss Dorothy Fordon of the same place and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rau of West Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of West Branch are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. Herbert W. Wolf of New York City has arrived at her summer home at Lake Margrethe for the season.

Information received this week by Agent S. Flowers announces that the Michigan Central railroad will place in service on June 25th a fast train, to leave Detroit Saturdays only at 11:30 a. m. and arriving in Mackinaw City about 7:00 o'clock p. m. A $5.00 fare from Detroit and $4.00 from Saginaw and Bay City and return is proposed to be placed in effect at that time with probably lower fares to intermediate points between Bay City and Mackinaw. Tickets will be good in coaches only and good going on this special fast train Saturdays and returning in coaches only up to Sunday night on regular trains. If this service comes up to the expectations of the railroad Company it will be continued during the entire summer period. This will be fine for people of Detroit and other southern Michigan cities to enjoy short outings over the week end, and the fare is extremely low. We trust there will be many who will take this opportunity to use the train service the Company plans to put into effect June 25th.

SCHOOL OPERETTA JUNE THIRD

June third has been set aside by the music department of the Grayling High School as a day dedicated to styles—hats. In other words Miss Louise McAllister announces the operetta "The Sunbonnet Girl" will be presented on that date.

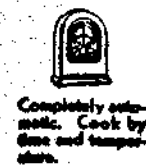

For clever music this operetta is hard to beat. Catchy tunes abound through it, interspersed with some keen dialogue, and clever dancing. It ought to go over in a big way and have Grayling humming some new tunes for weeks to come.

Miss McAllister has been hard at work, the members of the cast are really enthused about the project, and Grayling is to be taken into partnership on the night of June 3. It's going to be worth while to be around.

MICHIGAN TAKES LEAD IN STATE EXTRAVAGANCE

agriculture to see just what it does with all this money and how it disposes of its vast array of inspectors and employees. Commissioner Powell, by the way, is an ex-farmer, still interested in farming and probably comes as near a good job as any. However most farmers we know are sick and tired of being suckled and licensed and inspected and bossed and then asked for a service they never asked for, do not want, but on the contrary bitterly resent.

License Bureau.

About one-fifth of the revenue of the department of agriculture is picked up by the collection of licensing and inspection fees imposed by law and collected as the work is accomplished. The remainder comes out of the property tax. The state licenses milk dealers, cream tasters, creameries, ice cream makers, beverage manufacturers (not blind pigs), canning factories, syrup makers, commission merchants, seedsmen, nurserymen, veterinarians, stallions, fertilizer dealers, feed-stores, et cetera to endless bounds.

A farmer cannot sell his potatoes to the corner grocer without taking a short course in grading them to U. S. Standards and buying tags to label the basket. The poor benighted town dweller is thus protected against buying an undersized potato or one that is scabby or one that has been hooked by the digger. Of course the buyer could detect all these faults at sight, but why bother to look when a paternalistic commonwealth will do all things for all citizens. To be sure, there is no guarantee that a U. S. Standard No. 1 potato is worth eating. The matter of eating quality does not enter. And yet an honest farmer is subject to arrest if he even starts toward town with a bushel of ungraded and unlabeled potatoes.

Too Many Inspectors.

Near Cadillac the other day, a farmer drove to town in the morning to sell a load of potatoes. His load was passed by a state inspector as being well within the limits of tolerance set by the grading law. That afternoon, the same farmer with another load from the same pit and the same field and of identically the same quality and size, was stopped, this time by a pair of inspectors, and his load was rejected. Three state inspectors in the same small town on the same day all driving state cars, all drawing substantial salaries. And the state expects its hard working farmer selling potatoes at starvation prices to pay the bills and like it. Farmers with a few cows and in a desperate attempt to get money with which to pay for all the gee-gaws of modern state-craft, are pestered with license fees, restrictions and requirements until they turn the calves against the cow and swear in peace while they contemplate the future.

More than 150 printed pages are required to tell the public all that an ambitious busy-body commission does in the course of a year. The list runs the gamut from sampling apple better to pinning a tag on the family dog. Besides this there are numerous bulletins all printed at public expense which are distributed free of cost to those who desire them. Those who do not desire them pay the shot.

SCHOOL NOTES

Friday the 13th was chosen by the Senior class for their annual Skip Day.

This traditional event has outlived its name. The day is not a "skip" day at all. It is sanctioned by the management, and conducted through school authority. It is a worthwhile educational feature that quite makes up for time lost from school.

The Class of '32, in keeping with the times, decided that economy should be the keynote of the class activities. Therefore it was determined to cut Skip Day costs to a minimum, and pay the cost of the Senior's caps and gowns from the class treasury. Skip Day this year cost but $1.40 per person, from class funds and still the day was a high-powered success.

Leaving the school house soon after seven four carloads wound across the plains via Charron and Lode to Kalkaska, and on to Traverse City. The day's program involved a trip through the Traverse City State Hospital with expert guidance from a doctor and two attendants, a tour of the high school, a session on the shuffleboard courts of the world's second-largest club, a drive out the famous peninsula, dinner in the nine-story Park Place Hotel, and a trip to the show. After which it was a long-way back. The trip involved less total mileage than many such excursions, but everyone was willing to call it a day. There is little novelty to riding for any class. Treatment at the hotel was outstanding—a trip through the kitchens, up to the roof, a closed ball room and music for the dinner, and special decorations in the school colors featured; even to individual cakes with GHS in green and white frosting. Use of the shuffleboard courts was also a special concession to the Class of '32.

The day was ideal. A few rainstorms rolled over in the course of the afternoon, chiefly when the class was carrying on their extensive tour of the asylum. It dampened no one's enthusiasm. Class advisor Gerald Poor accompanied the class on the trip.

Prof. Clark Speaks Here.

Grayling high school had the rare privilege of listening to Prof. Clark of Alma College who addressed the assembly Monday morning. Prof. Clark spent 12 years in China, and his remarks concerning that country were colored by highly interesting personal experiences. China, with a quarter of the world's population, is one of the richest countries in the world. The Manchurian problem is still unsettled says Prof. Clark, and the probability of interference from Russia is apt to become reality. The market of the Japanese is 30% Chinese and the boycott that was instituted against their products was especially irritating. That accounts for the attempt on Shanghai, the New York of China.

From China can be learned the lesson of the necessity of cooperation and a war on ignorance. The Chinese have seven different dialects, and need education for wits that are sharp enough if trained. They have proven this by maintaining life in a country that has a rural population of 20,000 per square mile.

The time given to Prof. Clark was very much worth while. It was interesting to learn that he teaches in the Mathematic department at Alma, while in China he was working in the interests of the Y. M. C. A.

Our Orchestra.

The Grayling high school orchestra made a trip to Roscommon Friday with the intention of playing two numbers. They came back with the memory of a distinct success—they played half a dozen times at the Gerrish-Higgins May Day program. The orchestra is composed of Miss McAllister, Miss Dorr, Betty Welsh, Lillian Ahman, Eva Madsen, James Miller, Sam Gust, D'Alton Griffith, Lucille Hulme, Charles and Arthur Corwin. They report that they were very well used by their hosts in Roscommon.

STATE TO PLANT
2 MILLION PERCH

The largest single season's hatch of pike-perch in the history of the Department of Conservation is now being planted in Michigan waters.

The total plant will probably reach well over 300,000,000 fish.

The bulk of the young fish are being planted in Saginaw Bay, the other being placed in other Great Lakes waters bordering Michigan and in a few of the larger inland lakes.

The fish being planted were hatched from spawn gathered early in April by commercial fishermen operating along Saginaw Bay. During the period April 11 to April 29 these commercial fishermen took a yield of 640,000 pike-perch in the Bay and it was from these fish that the eggs were hatched.

About half of the eggs were hatched at the Bay City station. The Thompson Hatchery in Schoolcraft County and the Lydell Hatchery at Comstock Park also assisted in the work.

The large hatch of pike-perch according to Fred A. Westerman, head of the Fish Division, was attributed to ideal weather conditions during the spawning period and to the excellent cooperation given the state by the commercial fishermen.

Advisory.

As adversity leads us to think properly of our state, it is most beneficial to us.—Johnson.

WASHINGTON NOTES AND COMMENTS

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff, Tenth Michigan District).

On May 20, the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry reported the McNary Bill, Senate 4536, which embodies three major plans for use by the Federal Farm Board in relieving agricultural distress resulting from crop surpluses or low prices. This bill is an amendment to the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1929 and gives to the Farm Board authority to employ marketing agreements with cooperatives, the equalization fee and the export debenture plan, with discretionary power as to whether they may be used separately or together in solving the problems of agriculture.

During a series of hearings on the various farm relief measures, representatives of all the nationally known farm organizations sat with the committee at the request of Senator McNary, author of the bill and chairman of the committee. Members of the Farm Board and others concerned with the administration of farm relief legislation were also present during the hearings. In inviting representatives of farm organizations to participate, Senator McNary informed them that the committee was unable to offer any legislation unless they were able to agree among themselves as to its form. The bill was made to include all of the three proposals that have been put forward for solution of the farm problem and no amendments were attached by the Committee before it was voted out.

There is a genuine desire on the part of a majority of both the House and Senate to provide some measure of relief for agriculture. It is believed by many students of farm economics that this bill will provide such relief. It commends itself to me, and if and when the bill is before the House, I shall give it my most active support.

Agriculture is, of course, the greatest industry of my Congressional District. My loyalty to the farmer and his welfare is established by the fact that I have voted and worked for every measure presented to the House of Representatives during my service in Congress that held any hope of genuine farm relief. I shall continue to guard jealously the rights and interests and the general welfare of agriculture. I am hoping the Senate will speedily pass the McNary Bill and that the House Committee on Agriculture will likewise give the House of Representatives an opportunity to vote thereon, that the bill may quickly become the law, and that the judgment of its sponsors will be justified by the results accomplished.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency has favorably reported the Luce Bill to provide a system of home loan banks with a capital of $125,000,000 for the purpose of giving financial support to home building. This measure was recommended early in the session by President Hoover and is a part of his reconstruction program.

Congressman Luce of Massachusetts, author of the bill, stated that he does not believe more than $60,000,000 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation's funds will be called for under the bill. He declared, "It will, if enacted into law, prove the greatest of all the business relief measures suggested to the committee, since it affects so many people. About twelve million people have been members of home loan associations," said Mr. Luce, "about two million of whom are borrowers and the rest of whom are potential home owners. Many have announced their desire to withdraw their funds and the associations would not be able to stand this withdrawal and remain in business."

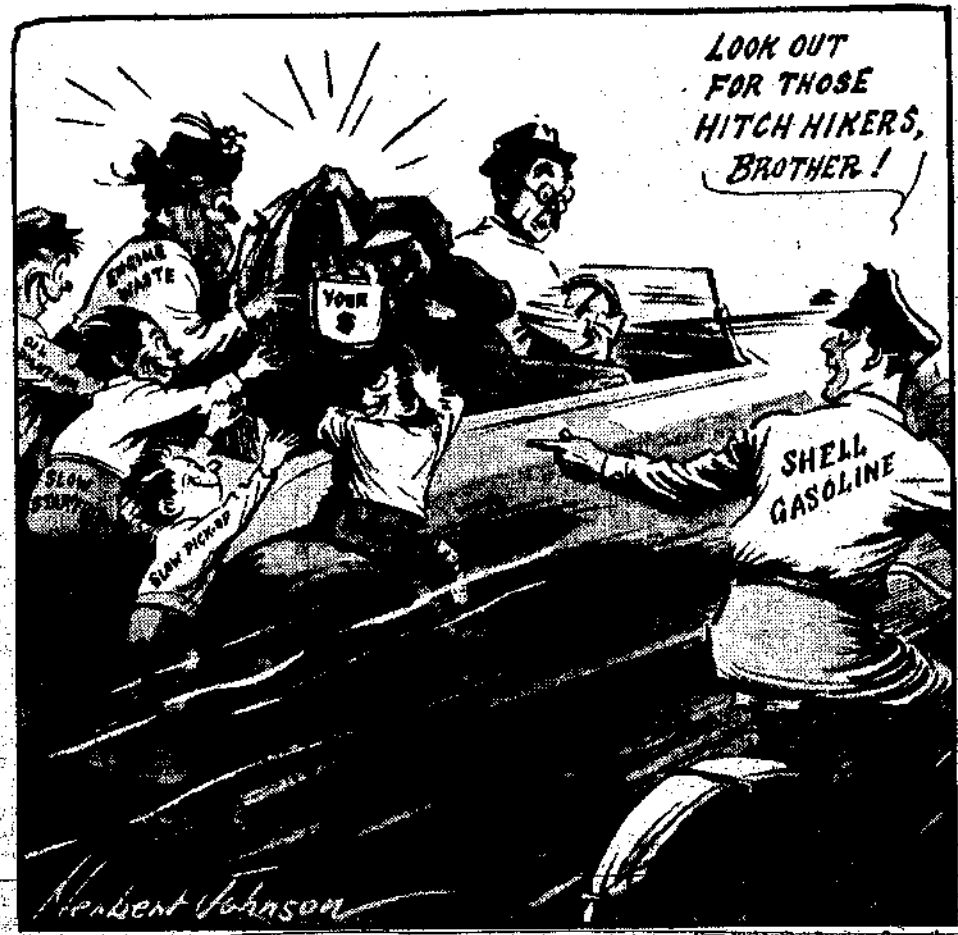

The agency proposed in the home loan bank bill is sound, conservative and built upon existing institutions which are subject to inspection and regulation by the States. It is non-inflationary and is planned to give financial support to existing home-financing, thrift or savings institutions.

The progress of the Revenue Bill, which passed the House of Representatives several weeks ago and was referred to the Senate is being unduly delayed by that body to the grave concern of the country. First, the Senate Finance Committee held hearings for several weeks, and since being reported to the Senate by that Committee a week ago last Thursday, sharp differences of opinion have developed among the Senators with respect to the imposition of import taxes in lieu of customs duties.

Just why there should be any question as to the desirability of placing import taxes on any article which is now on the free list and upon which a protective tariff should be spread, is a mystery to me. Long hours of debate are held in the Senate as to the propriety of putting a tariff in the tax bill. The only questions at issue, it seems to me, are whether or not there should be a tariff upon a given commodity, and the need of raising additional revenue. The pending tax bill affords a medium whereby such tariffs can be imposed, and in addition, whereby considerable additional revenue may be raised. What difference does it make whether it is called a tariff or a tax? Results are what count.

Scents and Vitamins

One of the scientific vitamins is due to the perfume of violets, but to the non-scientific the perfume of corned beef and cabbage is much more suggestive of vitamins.—Boston Evening Transcript.

ENGINE-WASTE costs American motorists millions of dollars a year.

Engine-Waste results when inferior gasoline fails to deliver the satisfactory performance you pay for. It is very costly indeed.

The high signs of Engine-Waste are familiar to every man who drives a car: Knocks, slow pick-up, dilution of oil, slow starting, gummy valves.

All these troubles mean wasted gasoline—Engine-Waste. All of them cut down mileage, boost gasoline costs.

To cut down Engine-Waste to a minimum in your car, use the fuel that is specially produced for this very purpose—Shell Gasoline. Here at last is a perfectly balanced motor fuel. It is made possible only by a remarkable process—by many years of continuous improvement in refining and blending.

Every lot of Shell is engine-tested at the refinery. Every lot must prove to us first what it will do for you.

If freedom from trouble, if satisfactory performance and maximum mileage mean anything to you—fill your tank today with Shell. It reduces Engine-Waste and saves you money.

Memorial Day Inspirations

Once each year all America pays tribute to the memory and achievements of our nation's hero dead, May 30 has come to be the one day when America pauses in the daily grind, to take stock of our rich heritage. Measured by the progress and the possessions of the other leading nations of the world in this troubled hour, America is still the richest and happiest nation in all the world. No other region in all the world is blessed by nature and the handiwork of pioneers, as is our own America. A continent in extent and an island in defense, our country is self-sustained and self-contained. Read history as one will, and nowhere is there anything comparable to our blessed situation. The empire of Rome was limited to a small part of Europe and a corner of Africa and Asia, as was the empire of Napoleon and France at their zenith. Here we have over 120,000,000 people, enjoying the privileges of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as our patriot fathers willed our heritage. Three thousand miles of ocean, east and west, provide security beyond anything the man made walls of China ever could hope for. Along our northern border three thousands miles of peace, plenty and amity, without a single fort or war defense, link us with our kindred in Canada. On the south the Republic of Mexico can thank Uncle Sam for the Monroe doctrine and her independence today. For on each Memorial Day we may well recall, that in the midst of our civil war, when Abraham Lincoln and his compatriots were fighting and dying to save the Union, the armies and navies of Europe invaded Mexico and placed a puppet emperor on the throne in Mexico City, as Japan is doing now in Manchuria.

Memorial Day Reflections

The ultra pacifists of America may well recall these sinister historic facts on this Memorial Day. The Monroe doctrine; America for Americans, immune from old world feuds and hates, rests today as in 1823, upon the army and navy of Uncle Sam. Europe tried to break down the Monroe doctrine by invading Mexico in 1863, in the very hour when these United States appeared doomed in the civil war. When the Union was saved and human slaves made free, Europe deserted their puppet Emperor Maximilian and he was shot by the Mexicans as a last example against any future invasion of their land and liberties by modern day imperialists. The one cloud on the international peace situation is the invasion of Manchuria by warlike Japan within this very year. They know that the open door in China and the independence of Manchuria is guaranteed by several international treaties. But only to her immediate neighbors on land.

too busy with her far flung colonies and "the white man's burden in Asia and Africa" to insist upon Japan living up to her peace treaties and international agreements. Just as Germany held America too busy chasing the almighty dollar to bother about the World War in Europe and Asia, so Japan today figures Uncle Sam in no mood for bothering about Manchuria and the far east. Thirteen years ago America and the new world thought they saw in the new League of Nations a real gain coming out of the World War waste and destruction. Today we know that Japan holds the League of Nations very cheap. Geneva, Switzerland, is a good place for the League to meet and talk and talk. But it will take something more than talk to stop Japan from keeping the food, coal, iron, rubber, wood and other valuable raw materials which Manchuria has in abundance. Japan needs only these raw materials to give her the money and industries which will make her supreme in the far east.

Memorial Day World Views

These are simple facts. Everything that was said about the militarism and imperialism of Germany in 1914, is true of Japan today. Perhaps even more so. For every Japanese child is trained for war. In 70 short years, Japan has brought her army and navy up to the best there is in the world today. And all this without the raw material to supply her growing industries, and without the money to command a supply of war materials from the rest of the world. Since 1894 Japan has grabbed Korea; Formosa; the Shantung peninsula; the Liaotung peninsula; the Pescadore Islands; concessions at Shanghai and other Chinese treaty ports; and now she has consummated her war program of 1894, by grabbing Manchuria. Japan's naval base in Formosa is only 160 miles from our American naval base at Manila Bay in the Philippines. Nearly two-thirds of the population of our own Hawaii are Japanese today. The American exclusion act alone stopped them from a similar immigrant invasion of our Pacific coast. Japan will never forgive America that discrimination. Being neither Chinamen or ostriches, red blooded Americans will do well to recognize these sinister facts. Superior force won the World War. Superior force rules the League of Nations today. Minor countries can talk and talk at Geneva, Switzerland. But the ultimate decision for disarmament and world peace rests with the nations that have the biggest navies and the biggest armies. Might is still right. Greed, vanity, fear and jealousy are still the deadly four horsemen that make for war and power. Plutocratic nations fear the distant threat of Russia and communism. They use that dread to keep the home folks from thinking too much about their own immediate good. But Russia has no money; no ice-free ports; no navy; no industries. Germany crushed Russia in two years of war, while fighting France, Britain, Italy and their Allies. Russia is a menace only to her immediate neighbors on land.
